DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1,2, 4-14 and 20 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

None of the prior art, either singularly or in combination, fairly teaches or suggests applicant's claimed invention wherein applicant recites "generating the icon automatically in response to determining the relative importance of each image of the group of images, wherein the icon comprises a graphic in a graphical user interface to represent the group of images, wherein the graphic is composed of an adapted selection of images selected from the group of images based on the determined relative importance of each image of the group of images, wherein relative importance of each image evolves and changes every time a factor taken into account for determining the relative importance of the corresponding image changes, and wherein the number of images that are selected to be incorporated in the icon is not fixed, but is an adapted number based on the determined relative importance (11....IN) of each image (1, 2, ... N), further wherein the adapted number of images incorporated in the icon is selected based on a sum of the relative importance of each of the images included in the icon being, at a minimum, a certain predetermined value."

Note;

Paragraph [0086] of the specification teaches processor means 21 (processor 21 as per figure 3) for performing arithmetical operations. The processor means 21 are connected to memory units (physical memory as exemplified below) that store instructions and data, such as a tape unit 19, a hard disk 18, a Read Only Memory (ROM) 24, Electrically Erasable Programmable Read Only Memory (EEPROM) 23 and a Random Access Memory (RAM) 22 which is statutory subject matter under 35 U.S.C. 101.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
